Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 10)

NB: The application for 24 hours off sales is to accommodate internet and telephone sales only.

Due to the nature of this premises and the fact that the majority of sales will be for delivery we anticipate that the operation will have little if no impact upon our neighbours.

All staff shall be suitably trained for their job function for the premises. The training shall be written into a programme ongoing and under constant review and shall be made available to a relevant responsible authority when called upon.

All sales shall be made remotely via the internet or telephone.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

The premises will have a suitable alarm system.

Alcohol shall not be on view from the exterior of the premises.

c) Public safety

The premises licence holder shall ensure that a suitable fire risk assessment and emergency plan is in place at all times.

The premises licence holder shall ensure that an electrical compliance check is made at least once a year.

No accumulation of combustible rubbish, dirt, surplus material or stored goods shall be permitted to remain in any part of the premises except in an appropriate place and of such quantities so as not to cause a nuisance, obstruction or other safety hazard.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

No deliveries will take place to the premises 19.00 and 7.00

Alcohol shall not be delivered to a person in a public place (e.g. car park, street corner, bus stop etc.)

All sales of alcohol shall be in sealed containers

e) The protection of children from harm

All deliveries will be made by a reputable courier who has a relevant age verification process or the premises Licence holder, or a direct employee of the Premises Licence holder

The Licence holder shall ensure that anyone utilised by the licence holder for the role of delivering alcohol orders ensures that the alcohol is delivered to the client who ordered the alcohol, or ensures that any 'safe place' as designated by the client where the delivery can be left must be in an area not visible to the general public and not where any minor can access the delivery.

A record of refusals shall be maintained which documents every instance that a sale or supply of alcohol is refused, indicating the date and time the refusal was made, and the member of staff making the refusal

The record of refusals shall be available for inspection by authorised officers of the licensing authority, officers of the trading standards service, and officers of the police

All staff that undertake the sale or supply of alcohol shall receive appropriate training in relation to undertaking appropriate age checks on such, before being allowed to sell or supply any alcohol. Refresher training will be carried out at least every three months.

Records of all staff training, relating to the sale or supply of alcohol along with any training material used, will be kept and maintained by the Designated Premises Supervisor or the Premises Licence Holder.

Staff training records shall be available for inspection by authorised officers of the licensing authority, officers of the trading standards service, and officers of the police.

Where alcohol is offered for sale and delivery or collection on the internet or over the telephone the following terms shall apply:

- Orders are only acceptable from customers over the age of 18
- A "Challenge 25" scheme is operated and customers who appear under the age of 25 will be required to produce a valid form of identification before the consignment of alcohol is delivered to them.
- The only acceptable forms of ID are:
 1. proof of age card bearing the PASS logo;
 2. passport; or
 3. UK photo driving licence.
 4. A military ID Card

Alcohol will not be delivered to any person who is challenged and fails to provide an acceptable form of ID.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
